Petitions Available For Biblerites

BIBLER BOUNCE character petitions began circulating Monday as students hurried to nominate their preference for the three enviable characters—Worthal, Louise Lush and Professor Snarf.

The petitions, available in the Daily Universe, are to nominate characters for studentbody vote in assembly January 24.

The three successful campaigners will reign, and perform at the annual Daily Universe-sponsored studentbody dance the next evening.

EACH PETITION calls for a 10-word-or-less reason for nomination of candidates.

One reason, submitted Monday by students who picked up a petition for the professors, nominated one of Brigham Young University's faculty members as the typical Professor Snarf.

"IN ADDITION to being slightly rotund," the note reads, he has a dry wit, which he uses to his fullest advantage."

"Not only does he occasionally 'cut' or 'chop' the students in his class, he slices, dices and finally grinds them into a mush before you can even make a reaction, let alone a retort."

Receptionists Requested

Receptionists, typists and stenographers are needed this quarter in the studentbody offices.

Interested coeds will be interviewed Tuesday between 4-6 p.m. in the Executive Council conference room in the basement of the Student Service Center.

Those unable to be interviewed at this hour should contact Willa Bryant, FR 3-7273.

Provo Sophomore Featured n Mademoiselle Magazine

Coed Janelle Brimhall, Provo, as her opinion of Brigham oung University in a January rticle in Mademoiselle maga ine on "The Best College for le."

Miss Brimhall's remarks on YU were included with 13 ther coeds' ideas on why their niversity is best suited for hem. Information was collected y Deborah Hanson, campus re orter for the womens' maga ine, during a college tour in November.

Listed in the article are costs, ncluding tuition, room and oard and compulsory fees. Fig res on what the average BYU tudent might earn during a chool year run $845 in com arison to an average of around 300-$4400 earned by students t the other colleges quizzed.

Tuition and fees at BYU tot led at $645, the lowest rate for ny of the colleges included in he article. This would make it ossible for a student to earn 200 more every year than necessary for tuition and fees. Other universities mentioned had an average cost of $1,000 student with student earning powers considerably less.

Miss Brimhall declared her major reason for coming to BYU was a desire to be ". . . associated with people of my own (Mormon) faith; where social and religious values are emphasized."

Also mentioned were social units, mat dances, Heritage Hall life and the BYU Stake.

Banyan Seeks Funds

All presidents of organizations who have not paid for one half of their Banyan space contracts, must contact Paul Nuttall Tuesday or Thursday afternoon in the Banyan office.

Students who bought Banyans fall quarter and received Banyan gift certificates for Christmas, may have the certificate price refunded at the Banyan office any time before Jan. 19.

Freedom Fighters Honored By Time; BYU Fund Grows

As the Hungarian Student drive on campus continues to grow, the Freedom Fighters of the bloodsoaked satellite received recognition from a national magazine.

The man of the year in this news publication was judged to be the Hungarian Freedom Fighter, a man who had fought against overwhelming military odds and, although he lost, won a great moral victory for the rest of the world.

This honor bestowed on that group of people who chose courageous death rather than Communist oppression is only one of many that have come to the Hungarians.

But these honors are only words unless backed up with acts such as that of the HSC. This committee is still collecting funds in an attempt to bring two Hungarian students to Brigham Young University to continue college.

Donations from the Relief Society to the Third Ward, BYU Stake, the Health Center, and Richard Second Ward of the Sugarhouse Stake in Salt Lake City total at $38.55 for Monday.

Funds are still being collected for the drive in the Daily Universe office, 144 Student Service Center, while work is being carried on in the Austrian refugee camps attempting to find two students.

Eisenhower's Doctrine Defended By Dulles

by Raymond Wilcove

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 — (INS) — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles told Congress Monday that President Eisenhower's fight-if-necessary Middle East program is designed to "stop World War Three before it starts."

Dulles was the first witness before the House Foreign Affairs Committee, which launched hearings on the President's request for broad military and economic powers to block Communist aggression.

Senate Armed Services and Foreign Relations Committees agreed to hold joint hearings on the doctrine Mr. Eisenhower laid before Congress at an extraordinary joint session last Saturday. Senate GOP Leader William F. Knowland, Calif., said he hoped the hearings would begin by the first of next week.

DULLES reiterated and elaborated upon the President's warning that the U. S. must make it clear that "armed Communist attack" in the Middle East "would have to be met, if need be, by the Armed Force of the United States."

He said the program was formulated at the request of "four or five Middle Eastern nations but did not name the nations. He said flatly that the plan would be accepted by Syria and Egypt, although he conceded that there are hostile influences in both countries.

Dulles testified in a room crowded to overflowing. He was flanked on one side by Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, on the other by Foreign Aid Chief John Hollister. Mrs. Dulles was among the spectators.

DULLES told the committee that the U. S. must recognize that the Eisenhower Doctrine "may temporarily, at least, increase tensions with the Soviet Union."

But he emphasized that every action taken by the U. S. since the 1947 Truman Doctrine of aid to Greece and Turkey against Communist aggression "has brought forth outbursts of misrepresentation from the Soviet Union."

Dulles said the U. S. would not invade any country in order to overthrow a Communist regime. He added that "internal subversion" would be combated with economic aid.

200 Novice Skiers Scurry To Slopes

Winter snow sent almost 200 students scurrying to Timp Haven last Saturday with skis over their shoulders to partake in the Women's Physical Education Ski School.

This year's program is one of the biggest according to Cynthia Ann Cowan, instructor in physical education. Miss Cowan praised the staff of student instructors who teach the classes.

Injuries for the first day on the slopes were almost nil, the only one being Joan Blodgett, Salt Lake City, who suffered a mildly sprained thumb.

Bishop Buehner Devotional Speaker In Assembly Today

Carl W. Buehner, second counselor to the presiding bishop of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints will be the featured speaker at Tuesday's devotional assembly.

Born in Germany, Bishop Buehner came to the United States at the age of two. He married Lucile Thurman in 1922 in the Salt Lake Temple. They have three daughters and one son.

Bishop Buehner held every position in the Forest Dale Ward bishopric, was a member of the Granite Stake high council, Granite Stake presidency and was Granite Stake president.

Before becoming a member of the presiding bishopric, Bishop Buehner was chairman of the Salt Lake region welfare and a member of the general Church welfare committee.

Foreign Students Report Addresses During January

All non-citizens of the United States are required to file an address report with the Immigration and Naturalization Service during January, according to Jack Griffin of the Salt Lake City Immigration office.

All aliens except those in diplomatic status, foreign representatives assigned to the United Nations and Mexican national contract laborers are requested to file the address report.

Mr. Griffin stated that any alien willfully violating the address report requirement may be fined up to $200, imprisoned for 30 days and deported.

In addition, aliens who are not in the United States during January must report their address to the service within ten days after their return.

Address report cards are available at the local post office.

The first of three parts of Brigham Young University's participation in the Ford Fund for Adult Education begins Thursday, Jan. 10, with an Applied Leadership class.

After the Thursday 7 p. m. meeting in 210 McKay Building which is for organization purposes, the class meets on two Saturdays, Jan. 12 and 19 in 207 and 208 McKay Building. These Saturday classes begin at 9 a. m. and conclude at 5 p. m.

All-day sessions are in the nature of a leadership workshop in which various aspects of group leadership are explored and the qualifications essential to a successful moderator in group discussion examined and evaluated.

Registration may be made through the BYU Extension Services office. A nominal fee is charged.

Dr. Oakley J. Gordon, assistant professor of psychology at the University of Utah, directs the class, which was taught in eight parts at the U of U during the autumn quarter.

The class is one part of the Ford Fund for Adult Education program in which BYU is participating. The second stage of leadership training provides actual experience in leading group discssions for those who have completed the two day class. As a third step a review course is conducted.

Course material was assembled by the Ford Fund for Adult Education. Dr. Gordon attended the Fund workshop last summer at Estes Park, Colo., where the material was tested in a concentrated two-week program.

Unique Musical Organization Features Calypso Rhythms

by Richard Kramer
Daily Universe Writer

ONE OF THE MOST unique musical groups has recently been organized for the enjoyment of Brigham Young University students.

This group known as "The Vagabonds" specialize in calypso and folk songs.

Unlike many of the other musical groups on campus, this was started not only for the entertainment received by its audiences but also by the participants themselves.

TRACY CALVERT, freshman from Alhambra, Calif., decided to organize "The Vagabonds" because, as he states, "I have always loved this type of music with a great passion and when I found others who were just as enthused I decided to organize a group so we ourselves could enjoy it, while also sharing it with others."

Upon further investigation of this group it was discovered that not only does Calvert love this music but he plans to "escape" with the assistance of two other enthusiasts, to the birthplace o his music which tends to awa en the "dormant rhythms" some people.

THE TWO assistants in Ca vert's adventure are Martin Ha ris, Long Beach, Calif., and Jo Wadsworth, Palm Springs, Cal

"The Vagabonds" are now u der the direction of the Stude Program Bureau.

They have recently been fe tured on both KOVO and KEY and a specialty number for t freshman class party Dec. 8.

"Great things are planned f this group!" commented Calve "We hope that in the near fu ture we'll have a lot of pr duction numbers with our ov lighting and extensive costu ing."

MEMBERS of the group a Gene Devenport, Colleen Brow Tracy Calvert, Cheryl Hoffma Maryin Burton, Bob Asper, H ward Larson, Warren Cart Carol Wilcox, Clayne Robi son, Pub Haynes, Daleene Tu ler and Becky Cambell.

Diamond Jubilee

by Jeri Ann Murphy

Another of the old guard has bitten the dust as the campus' favorite, and our favorite, photographer Wally Barrus leaped dreamily from the sanctity of blissful bachelorhood to the never never land of love and entanglement.

Staring blankly into space with the bewildered gaze of the caught, Wally recently informed this defender of truth and malice-with-fore-thought that he had been had.

Dean Bachler, much bemedaled and honored member of a notorious club of male maids, was seen cheating at a recent studentbody dance. He was tightly entwined in the clutches of a gorgeous female. The silly look on his red face when caught by this snooping columnist was enough to reveal that the membership of this undercover organization is diminishing.

Wally Barrus, Gooding, Ida., gave Shirlene Palmer, Aurora, a diamond for Christmas. He is Banyan photography editor, and she is employed at the news bureau.

Elaine Stirland accepted a diamond from Barrie McKay. She is a Nautilus member from Chinook, Mont. Last year she was Associated Women Students secretary and chairman of songfest. He is a Delta Phi member and Program Bureau master of ceremonies from Huntsville.

Planning a spring wedding in Switzerland are Donna Glazier, studentbody secretary, and David Dalton. He completed a two-year mission in West Germany and is now enrolled in an academy of music at Vienna, Austria. He home is Mesa, Ariz., and he is from Springville.

Knight Templar member Walt Winkleman gave a diamond to Edie Jones Christmas eve, and they will be married Jan. 18. He is from Salt Lake City and her hometown is Hemet, Calif.

ToKalon member Nancy J. Carlston and Don Perkins are planning to recite marriage vows in the Salt Lake Temple June 6. He comes from Clay Springs, Ariz., and recently returned from the Brazilian mission. Her home is Arlington, Va.

Planning a winter wedding and a honeymoon in Old Mexico are Norma Flygare, Salt Lake City, and George Hennessey, Tempe, Ariz. Both are sophomores. He is majoring in geology.

Luanna Wortham is making known her engagement to Bob Rowe. Both are from Grand Junction, Colo. She is a junior class senator, and he recently returned from a North Central States mission.

Carol Epperson, Heidelberg, Germany, and Paul Nuttall, Pacific Grove, Calif., are another engaged couple. They plan to be married in August. She's on the dance committee, and he is a Delta Phi member. They met while he was stationed in Heidelberg with the United States Army.

Lonnie Dennis and Dixie Keeler are making known their nuptial plans. They are planning to be married in August in the Los Angeles Temple. He is a frosh football team member from Pico, Calif., and her hometown is San Gabriel, Calif.

Cats, Farmers, Pokes Stand At Skyline Head

by Jerry Cunningham

UTAH STATE'S frantic Farmers, dubbed an also-ran by preleague dopesters, were the big surprise in the first week of Skyline play as they knocked off favored Utah 68-64 in an overtime and squeaked by Montana 80-79 to take the circuit lead.

Brigham Young University and Wyoming share the runner-up slot. BYU dumped Montana 85-68, but the Silvertips gave the Cougars some anxious moments.

THE COWBOYS left Albuquerque with a healthy sigh of relief as New Mexico, a potential league doormat, battled Wyoming on even terms before bowing 65-67.

The Lobo bounce-back on Saturday night by besting Colorado A&M 70-62 gives New Mexico a berth in the upper division.

Denver, untested by Skyline foes, takes a 2-6 pre-league record to Utah on Thursday. On Saturday the Pioneers travel to Missoula for a tilt with Montana, 3-5.

NEW MEXICO tests the Grizzlies on Thursday night and Utah on Saturday night on the opponents' home courts.

Utah State (6-6) will be defending its first place position against Wyoming (3-8) Friday in Laramie. On Saturday Colorado A&M (3-8) will host the aggies.

BYU PLAYS Colorado A&M away from home on Friday and then the Cougars travel to Laramie on Saturday for a clash with Wyoming in what could amount to the most important game of the week.

Pre-season play among Skyline representatives and intersectional foes leaves the Rocky Mountain teams on the short side of a 35-46 record.

Only BYU and Utah have made good showings against non-league teams. Utah garnered an 8-2 record and the Cougars, playing the stiffest foes, was 6-5.
